

Introducing ECON 9520: Social and Economic RDC Data
(GSU Course # CRN18402)

WHAT: Distance Learning (DL) course offered by Prof. John Abowd (Cornell)
This course will include an introduction to data available through a Census Research Data Center (RDC) and to the Virtual RDC run by Cornell.

WHEN: Tuesdays, 4:00-6:30pm, first meeting is January 18, 2011

WHERE: A DL seminar room in the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies, GSU
14 Marietta Street, Atlanta, GA 30303
Easily accessible via Marta, guest parking information available at:
http://www.gsu.edu/transportation_parking.html

REGISTRATION:

GSU Students:

Must register for credit. Contact Shelly-Ann Williams to register (see below).

Tech or Emory Students:

If taking for credit, contact your cross-registration office by NOON Dec. 14.
If you have questions, you can contact Shelly-Ann Williams (see below).

Everyone Else (Faculty, etc.):

Register by contacting Avani Raval (see below).

MORE INFO: See a description of the course at: <http://www.vrdc.cornell.edu/info747/>

Class meets March 1 (during GSU spring break)

No class March 22 (Cornell spring break)

Last class May 3

Examination materials due May 13

Grades available May 20

CONTACT:

For students:

Shelly-Ann Williams, AYSPS Director of Academic Assistance, swilliams@gsu.edu

For non-students:

Avani Raval, araval@gsu.edu

GSU Registration Deadline: January 6, 2011

NOTE: GSU is CLOSED Dec. 18 - Jan. 3; so either register NOW or between Jan. 4 - Jan. 6